

INFANT

Infancy is represented on the Medicine Wheel to the East where new days begin, for us to discover and learn. Like the first rays of dawn, infancy is when you start to understand the world around you. This is a stage of wonder, trust and a foundation for growth.