

ADULT

ELDER

Adults are the caregivers, protectors, and providers in the circle of life. On the Medicine Wheel, adulthood is connected to the West, a place of responsibility, reflection and strength. This stage represents a time for contribution to family and community. Adults are learners and teachers, finding balance between giving and growing.